Presidents Note

What an amazing summer we've had here in Alberta. Hot and dry with very few bugs has allowed us to take real advantage of the morgan horses that have brought us together! You may find yourself as I have, asking where the time has gone. It feels like yesterday I was throwing a leg over my three year old for the first time – now he's halfway broke!

Club members were busy with trail rides to the Blackfoot here in Sherwood Park and to the eastern slopes of the mountains, several successful and competitive completions at endurance rides, some excellent exhibitions of our fine horses at breed shows and open shows, both north and south of the 49th. In July there was a club social hosted at the Groot's, thank you to them! I wasn't able to make it but hear it was well attended. August saw the return of a horse show put on by the youth of our club. Excellent work to those young members who did an great job in working together and with their significant donation to the Bear Valley Rescue, an equine rescue organization here in Alberta.

The Alberta Morgan Horse Show was a great success this year with 128 entries – highlighted by the trainer's equitation challenge Saturday night, stronger futurity entries, the addition of arabian classes and good spirits on Friday and Saturday

The trainer's equitation challenge was a fundraiser for the Ponoka Food Bank and thank you to everyone who contributed to the more than $900 and countless pounds of food we were able to donate. This is a difficult time of year for food banks near and far and their appreciation for our efforts was evident.

I want to thank those individuals who have given the club their time over the summer. It's a very busy time and it's the efforts of these folks that the club relies on to exist.

In closing, good luck to any and all of our members who are making the trek to the Morgan Grand National and World Championship Horse Show in Oklahoma City, October 10-17. Safe travels to attendees and for those watching from home there is live streaming at www.richfieldvideo.com. Cheers! David Gillen

A Note From The Editor

Fall already?? It's hard to believe! I have enjoyed receiving some articles for this issue and I hope you enjoy reading them as much as I did. A big thank you going out to David Gillan for taking the time to have a veterinary information page provided to us for the last few issues. Great info!

The newsletter now seems to be growing and I'm so happy to see it! With this I would like to now implement dedicated issues. Jan/Feb – Awards, Mar/Apr – Stallions and breeding, May/June - coloured Morgans and foals, July August – Trail riding and fun with Morgans, Sept/October - Historical, Nov/Dec – Christmas Wishes. Any articles are still welcome in any issue of course.

Good luck to all who are competeing in OKC!

But Horses are too expensive...

I get asked all the time "Why do you ride horses, aren't they expensive?" Or comments like "I wish we could do that but we can't afford to." Let me start by saying that my husband and I both work average jobs with average incomes and we have two beautiful, average children. We live in a small city in Alberta with an average home. We are, in every way, shape and form, average middle class people. We are not wealthy nor will we ever be.

Like most people who love horses, we started out with riding lessons. Our horses were supplied by our trainer, a young girl just starting out in her career. At the beginning, my four year old daughter and I went to ride once a month. Our trainer noticed how much we both loved it and she encouraged us to come more often. She said, "Riding horses is not just sitting on a horse. In order to get better, and so the horse knows what you're asking it to do, you need to be more consistent with your lessons." So we did! We started going once a week and I was amazed! I had ridden quite a bit as a child and even showed, but as the weeks progressed, I became more relaxed. I learned to give the horse the proper cues to actually have a successful ride. My daughter progressed very quickly as well. Our trainer was constantly helping her improve and would choose different horses to challenge and refine her skills. Every time my daughter moved to a different horse, I did as well. We were always being encouraged to learn more. Not only did our trainer become our coach, she quickly became our friend.

My Trainer and I began to discuss the future, this has become a continual conversation, and she asked us what we thought about showing. I inquired about the costs as this would be the clincher for me and I asked if we could start out small. Our coach helped us find some used show clothes and we were on the way to our first show! It was crazy. It was scary. Most of all, it was fun, like really fun! Our coach found us a beautiful little horse that she used as a lesson horse. She wasn't really fancy but she was safe. We knew she would take care of my daughter who was now five, while she was out in the arena.

Have I mentioned how adorable my daughter was? Well she was and she even won her very first ribbon. She was excited, I was excited and our coach was excited! There was so much excitement! We had been riding for a whole year to get to this point. It was so incredible to see that our skills stood up to those from other barns and coaches. We were off to a great start!

We started to shop around for our own horse. My daughter did a few three day shows that year and did very well. We found a horse that was in our price range that was not too "hot" but not "dead" either. We showed him at a couple of day shows and a few three day shows. She did not do well at all. There were a number of contributing factors, the biggest being the new horse/rider combo. They just didn't gel together. We bumped up our lessons to twice a week to work on their relationship. My daughter is small, very small, think Thumbelina small. Her horse was very strong and she couldn't control him. Another factor was that the horse was not loving his job. He preferred to show Saddle Seat and we were riding Hunt Seat with him.

This is when we learned the most important lesson about owning a horse: patience. We learned that in order to fully appreciate a win we had to accept a loss. We also recognized that disappointment isn't the end of the world. We learned to appreciate the value of a coach who is willing to help you through every worry, disappointment and feel your loss like it was their own. They keep you focused and motivated but help keep your heart light and the experience fun. They not only teach, but guide because they have already experienced it all under the direction of their own caring and loving coach. Honestly, our coach was absolutely amazing that year. She pushed us when we needed pushing and helped us see the fun in everything when there were moments when we just wanted to quit. It was that year that I realized we were a part of something awesome.

Everyone at our barn was trying their very best and sometimes our best was enough and sometimes it fell short. However, we were all in this together as a team. We rooted for one another, celebrated each win and we felt each other's losses. We became a family. At every show we helped each another get ready for classes. This often meant chasing someone down with a forgotten whip or a wet wipe for that last second touch up.

The cost of owning and showing a horse is about five to ten thousand dollars a year. Yes, to some that may be too expensive. When we were just seeing the dollar signs, it was expensive to us too. I am not going to lie and say that we thought it was cheap, we didn't. You could put that $10,000 into an ATV, a car or a boat, entertainment and social activities or holidays. None of those, however, teach your child about responsibility, love or compassion; nor about the joy of winning after so much struggle, hard work and hardship. They also don't teach about modesty, good sportsmanship or the bond that one can create with an animal that is 5 times bigger than the rider. In our situation, all of this is invaluable. What this has taught my daughter and I about life has been worth every penny we have spent and will continue to spend. Yes, we've made sacrifices to do this sport. We don't eat out a lot, don't go to movies as often as we might like and we don't go on extravagant holidays. However, eating out, movies and entertainment are expensive too and they don't teach you anything. The average Canadian spends $190/month on eating out. That's $5000/year roughly. An average family trip to Mexico is around $4000 and the amount you spend on coffee per year is around $1200. That money could be put towards the total cost of your horse. It all depends on your priorities. So, there you have it. We are actively engaged in a physical activity that also allows me to spend quality time with my daughter doing something that we both love. We learn together, laugh together and cry together. So yes, to answer your question, it is expensive, but I often think to myself "How could I afford not to?"

YOUTH REPORT

This year was very busy for the Alberta Morgan Youth Club. Most of the year was spent preparing for our AMHYC Charity Horse Show that was held in August at the Beaumont Agricultural Fairgrounds. The committee did a great job working together to put on a successful show. As a club we were able to raise over $1000 to put towards a donation to the Bear Valley Rescue as well as for some of our upcoming youth activities. The show was a lot of fun and a great learning experience for the youth involved. I am excited to see what success the show will have in years to come.

FROM THE CANADIAN MORGAN,

_by Maya Beakhouse

The 46th Annual Alberta Morgan Horse Show was held from Friday, September 4 to Sunday, September 6 at the Ponoka Agricultural Events Centre in Ponoka, Alberta. Although the whole weekend was overcast, rainy, and freezing cold, the entire show had a warm, welcoming feel to it, and the people are always friendly.

This year, everyone pitched in and collectively donated more than $900 and a ton of groceries to the Ponoka Food Bank through the exciting Trainers' Equitation Challenge. To compete, a trainer had to be nominated, and to nominate your trainer, you had to bring a bag of groceries or a cash donation to your trainer's box at the show office.

It was held after the last class on Saturday evening, and 13 pros showed up to vie for the title. First, Judge Todd Trushel had them do rail work as the crowd cheered wildly for their favourites. Then he had them all line up at the far end of the arena and trot back without stirrups for the pattern. After that, while the judge made his decisions, Kerri Buksa entertained the crowd by collecting bets for the 50-50 to raise money for the Alberta Morgan Horse Club. In the end, the winner was Saddlebred trainer Raylene McWade. Reserve champion was Sonja Lorensen. Other Morgan trainers included John Beaver, Stephanie Abel, Todd Ehret, Isobelle Ehret, Deborah Davies, Barb Tracey, Brittany Rogers and Connie Manning-McNichol.

The Alberta Morgan Horse Show also had some other fun special events such as the Scavenger Hunt on Saturday night, the ice cream social at Hawkstone on Friday night and the CMHA Youth Challenge.

Although all of the people at the show were nice, there was one rather unwelcome guest, who seemed to take pleasure in entering the arena without permission and scaring unsuspecting horses. He was...the notorious pigeon (ominous background music). This unruly bird spent his weekend in the corner of the arena, "helping" the judge make up his mind in each class. Mr. Pigeon would start by hiding behind the rail, and then popping out and flapping his wings at horses passing by, completely terrorizing them. So watch out for this infamous railbird!

Todd Trushel from Fairview, Pennsylvania, was the main judge. Linda Miller was the show steward, and Aldona Tracey managed the show office. In the centre ring, Tony Mayne announced the winners while Meaghan Rae Gomolchuk was the ring master. The devoted show committee was comprised of Del Burns, Leann Dixon, Bea Dixon, Betty Tracey and Kelly Wagar. Finally, there were also many great volunteers who contributed by handing out ribbons, opening and closing the gate, and managing the hitching ring.

English Pleasure

French Final Exchange and Ashley Tolsma swept the English division at this show, claiming both of the very competitive open and junior exhibitor/amateur championships. "Bob" is a fancy, white-trimmed dark bay gelding who was perky, up-headed, and in the bridle for both rides. This great pair has worked very hard this year, and it shows! Ashley started the year riding in walk-trot classes at the Parkland Spring Show in May, and finished off the season winning these two championships! Ashley and French Final Exchange are also the ecstatic recipients of the "Royal Revenge" memorial perpetual trophy, donated by K-Lynn Stables. They are trained by Stephanie Abel of Dawnville Farms.

Jessa Dumkee's compact, high-stepping, liver chestnut, VVM Well Deserved, had many pretty rides, winning reserve in both championships as well as winning the junior exhibitor qualifier. This great pair is trained by John Beaver at Hawkstone Ranch.

Hylee's No Regrets is a cute, curvy, dark bay who won the amateur, senior rider and limit horse qualifiers, with Carla Cousineau. Connie Manning-McNichol at TamRac Ranch trains them. The animated Takata Arapama and Isobelle Ehret put on a show to win the open qualifier for Ehret Equine. In the youth qualifier, Robyn Davies rode FCF Fandango with his head up and in the bridle, to bring the red ribbon back to Deborah Davies' K-Lynn Stables. TRSW Jezebel and Stacey Thorpe, trained by TamRac's Connie Manning-McNichol, had an energetic solo performance to win the limit rider class.

Classic Pleasure Saddle

LLM Image of Thyme is very suitable for the classic division, and with Jennifer Kristensen, the steady black gelding put his ears up and tucked his nose in, doing victory passes in the classic pleasure saddle championship, ladies qualifier, and open qualifier. Jen and "Timex" are trained by Stephanie Abel at Dawnville Farms. The spirited TRSW Jezebel and Stacey Thorpe were reserve in the championship and also winners of the limit horse class, for Connie Manning-McNichol at TamRac Ranch.

Center of Attention and Georgina Sanche were the sole entry in the junior horse class, but this little bay mare still put on a show, holding her head high and never dropping an ear. Center of Attention is owned by Kayshia Langille.

Hunter Pleasure

The hunt classes at the Alberta Morgan Show were very well-attended.

TamRac's Enzo and Emilie Wendland totally swept the huge hunter division, winning the open championship (out of 11) and the junior exhibitor/amateur championship (out of 11), as well as the youth (out of 9), open (out of 9) and ladies amateur qualifiers. Black, bold and consistent, "Enzo" has a lot of presence in the ring. Barb Tracey of Bar-B Ranch trains this team.

BMF Philemon is a nice-moving, steady, bay gelding who claimed the reserve open championship title with Sjoukje-Jeltsje Baarda. They are trained by Brittany Rogers at Rogers Riding Academy. Reserve champion hunter pleasure junior exhibitor/amateur was the consistent, ground covering Bora Bora, ridden by Jordan Reid. This pair is also trained by Barb Tracey at Bar-B Ranch. The nice, black TamRac's Doc Hudson, ridden by Danielle Black, was the sole entry in the hunter pleasure junior horse division, winning the championship and qualifier. BMF Giada and Aidan Lorensen, the reigning Hunter Pleasure Junior Exhibitor Reserve World Champions, topped the junior exhibitor qualifier in a field of 11. Harvey Sawatzky owns this pretty and elegant liver chestnut mare. The Lorensens also claimed another hunt title when BMF Secret Code and Sonja Lorensen won the hunter pleasure limit horse class. Also owned by Harvey Sawatzky, BMF Secret Code is big, flashy, and bold moving.

In the limit rider class, TamRac's Maximum Velocity and Brenda Wangert bested an impressive field of 10 to claim the red ribbon. Trained by Hawkstone's John Beaver, this pair had a perfectly steady and bridled ride. The cute, dark bay mare, TamRac's Renne de Soleil, shown by trainer Barb Tracey, had a nice ride to finish first in the ladies qualifier for owner Jordan Reid. Colleen Weighill showed her curvy, sleek mare, Briar Oaks Frysky Byzness, and won the hunter pleasure amateur qualifier. She is trained by Deborah Davies at K-Lynn Stables. Also trained by K-Lynn is Morgan Hill Monster Mash. Ridden by Skye Davies, "Monty" is a big, powerful hunter who blew the crowd away with his beautiful extended gaits. He is a versatile horse, since he has also been shown successfully in English and classic pleasure.

Western Pleasure

The western division at this show was very competitive. In the western pleasure championship, the winner receives the Karen Abel Memorial perpetual trophy, as this was one of Karen's favourite classes. Thus, it is absolutely fitting that the western pleasure champion was her daughter, Stephanie Abel, and DTA Aces Wild. "Zeus" is a cute, typey, dark bay gelding, who had an impeccable ride to claim this championship title. DTA Aces Wild also won the senior rider qualifier (with Stephanie) and the limit rider qualifier with proud owner, Tracy Nakonechny.

Reserve in the open championship as well as winning first in the amateur qualifier was Cannabar Masquerade and Shari Groot. This smooth, calm and consistent chestnut mare is very suitable for the western division. DSD Zingerman is cute and fancy, and Aidan Lorensen expertly rode him to win the junior exhibitor/amateur championship and the junior exhibitor and youth qualifiers.

Reserve in the junior exhibitor/amateur championship was Cedarcrest Noteable Son and Gloria Jean Pitts. This steady, dark bay is trained by Stephanie Abel, adding to Dawnville's ribbons.

The year 2015 was Morgan Hill Gentle Rein's debut year, and it was very successful one. Ridden by David Gillen and trained by John Beaver of Hawkstone, this big, fancy, bay won the western pleasure junior horse championship and qualifier.

Reserve in the championship was Once in a Blue Moon, ridden by Stephanie Abel and owned and bred by Willa Schwab. "Elsa" is a nice-moving, cute little mare, and this was only her second show ever.

Elegant and mannered, Gulfwind Wild Again and Cathy Hawkins won the open qualifier. Cathy only started riding "Buddy" in August, and they are already enjoying a lot of success. Kaydee Crow owns Gulfwind Wild Again, and this is another Stephanie Abel-trained team from Dawnville.

Cute and collected, BMF Custom Made and Sonja Lorensen claimed the top award in the limit horse class.

Driving

The driving classes at this show were low on entries with mostly one horse classes, but definitely not low in quality.

Winning the pleasure driving championship was VVM Well Deserved. Christa Dumkee drove, keeping her white-trimmed liver chestnut stepping high and his nose nicely in.

The reserve champion pleasure driving was Dwayne Comeau and his stunningly beautiful, typey, and animated stallion, Morgan Hill Funky Phantom. "Funky" also won the junior/limit horse class, with trainer John Beaver.

FRF Swept Away and Cathy Gillen won the classic pleasure driving championship and open qualifier. "Sydney" is a feminine and well-mannered bay mare. All three of the above mentioned horses are trained by John Beaver at Hawkstone.

The reserve champion classic pleasure driving and the junior/limit qualifier winner was BMF Treat Me Gently, with the experienced hands of driver and owner Harvey Sawatzky as whip.

In Hand and Futurity

Dwayne and Shannon Comeau's "Morgan Hill" breeding farm horses dominated the stallion division. This year's champion stallion was Dwayne's gorgeous 3 year old, Morgan Hill Funky Phantom. "Funky" is curvy, masculine, and royally bred (by LPS The Boogie Man). He also won the 3- and 4-year-old stallions qualifier, as well as the Alberta Morgan Horse Club Futurity Performance class, with John Beaver in the irons.

Another Comeau entry, Morgan Hill Stompin' Tom (by SYP High Definition) was reserve champion stallion, as well as the yearling and 2-year old colts class winner and AMHC futurity yearling winner.

Winning the weanling colts class and AMHC futurity weanlings class was Morgan Hill Marked Man (by DBA Street Talk), also owned and bred by Dwayne Comeau.

Harvey Sawatzky's Birch Meadow Farms breeding program has resulted in multiple world-title horses. Winning the mares championship and 5 and over qualifier was BMF Treat me Gently (by Pondview Tres Bien), owned and bred by Harvey.

The reserve champion mare was David Gillen's HSR Flirtatious (by Hollybrook Stage Rage), who also won the yearling and two year old fillies class.

Morgan Hill Rush to Glory (by SYP High Definition) is another of Dwayne Comeau's Morgans, who won the weanling fillies class. The winner of the 3 and 4 year old mares qualifier was Center of Attention (by Aftershock Dot Com), owned by Kayshia Langille.

The champion gelding and 5 and over winner was French Final Exchange (by MEM Bailamos), owned by Ashley Tolsma. This fancy guy, who is quite the show-off, was also the English pleasure champion. The reserve champion gelding was TDF Command Performance (by Rum Brook Immortal Image), owned by K-Lynn stables.

DTA Aces Wild and Canabar Masquerade, respectively, were both champion and reserve in both the suitable to be western/sport horse championship and western pleasure championship. DTA Aces Wild is a curvy and refined, dark bay gelding owned by Tracy Nakonechny, who also won the suitable to be western 3 and over qualifier. Canabar Masquerade is a chestnut mare who is nice and slow, calm and relaxed. She is owned by Shari Groot.

Vern Baron's Canabar Celebration was the winner of the suitable to be western/sport horse 2 and under class and the AMHC futurity yearling suitable to be western/sport horse. Arlene MacKenzie's bay dressage gelding, Morgan Hill Bold Image was the winner of the 3 and over suitable to be sport horse class.

Equitation and Showmanship

The all breeds, any seat equitation stake class was huge – there were 12 horses! Of those 12 horses, 6 were Saddlebreds, 4 were Morgans and 2 were Arabians/Half-Arabians, which basically meant that the Morgans were outnumbered, but it was still an extraordinary Morgan rider who won: Skye Davies riding saddleseat on FCF Fandango.

What really set her apart from the other riders was her precisely executed pattern, which consisted of an element where the rider could choose to do whatever best displayed their riding skills. Unlike most riders who chose to simply trot down the rail, she performed a more complex pattern, involving cantering on the opposite lead and posting without stirrups. Skye and Fandango also won the UPHA Challenge Cup class, donated by the Vancouver Charity Horse Show. Riding hunt seat on LV Kinkade. Skye Davies also won the CMHA hunt seat silver medal and Morgan hunt seat equitation 17 and under. Her sister, Robyn Davies, was the winner of the CMHA saddleseat silver medal, riding FCF Fandango. Both horses are owned by K-Lynn stables and trained by Deborah Davies.

In the CMHA western seat silver medal, Catriona Kozijn won. Unfortunately she couldn't show her western horse this summer due to an injury on her horse, but she surprised everyone by riding into the arena on Lorelei Friedrich's BMF Mastermind!

In a field of nine, Jordan Reid on Bora Bora won first in the hunt seat equitation 17 and under qualifier. Shari Groot rode western on Canabar Masquerade, keeping perfectly straight and still, and claimed the red ribbon in the adult equitation class.

Georgina Sanche is the reigning reserve World Champion Showmanship and 14-17 Showmanship Grand National Champion. At this show, leading Saralin's Conductor CH, she performed with amazing confidence and accuracy, winning both the CMHA Showmanship Silver Medal and the 14-17 class, bringing red ribbons back to Sanche Performance Horses. Also from Sanche Performance Horses is Samantha Dixon, who won the 13 and under showmanship class with Cha-Ching Cherry.

Walk Trot/Leadline

The Morgan walk-trot-jog championship class is always exciting, as the winner receives the prestigious BMF Willow memorial perpetual trophy, generously donated to the Alberta Morgan Show by Dwayne and Shannon Comeau in 2010. So this year marks the trophy's fifth anniversary. The champion was... (drumroll please)... Tazara Windigo and Brady Groot! Tazara Windigo is an older, steady and reliable gelding, who won the hunter pleasure championship and qualifier, too. Brady is a great young rider, and he is excited to compete in Oklahoma this year on the reigning 4-year old hunter pleasure World Champion, LBJ Pure Elegance. Brady will also be riding Canabar Masquerade in OKC, and he rode her at the Alberta Morgan Show, scoring the reserve champion walk -jog western pleasure.

Reserve champion in this nice class as well as the English pleasure qualifier and championship was the nice-moving and in-the-bridle Takata Arapama and Jorja Lavergne. This is Jorja's first year showing Takata Arapama, and she has been doing very well. They are trained by Ehret Equine's Todd and Isobelle Ehret.

Wasimaye Sana and TamRac's Chromed by Command had an excellent show, competing in both hunt and western seat divisions. They won the western pleasure championship and qualifier, as well as the hunter pleasure reserve championship, the hunt seat equitation class, and the walk trot novice class, riding hunt. This pair consistently has nice, quiet rides, and Wasimaye keeps her dark bay horse's nose in. Wasimaye definitely isn't a novice anymore! Their trainer is Connie Manning-McNichol of TamRac ranch.

The winner of the saddleseat equitation class was RGM Special Delivery and Tana Smith. "Jackson" is a sweet little guy who also won reserve in the English pleasure championship, ridden by Tana Smith. They are trained by Brittany Rogers at Rogers Riding Academy.

Bentlee Kublik and Iron Forge Code Blue placed first in the western equitation class. Bentlee has a smooth, steady seat, and is trained by Stephanie Abel of Dawnville Farms.

TamRac's Doc Hudson and Kennedy Boswell were the winners of the Morgan walk trot hunter pleasure 9 and under class, trained by Connie Manning-McNichol of TamRac ranch. Eric Lorensen and BMF Xandra won the assisted walk-jog western pleasure 12 and under class. In, addition, Owen Taylor and M'Lady Bounce claimed first in the assisted walk-trot all ages class.

In the leadline all ages class, Lonnie Lindgren, who in the past, has not had very many competitors in his leadline classes, was very happy that the Leadline 6 and under and all ages classes were combined this year, so there were many horses in his class! All of the leadline entries were so good this year that the judge gave them all first place! The winners were Julianna Taylor, Kameryn Tabler, Lonnie Lindgren, Maggie Nesvadba, Prentyss Britton and Cordelia Thorpe.

Lonnie has been a trend setter in leadline this year, after commenting earlier in the summer that he wished he had more competitors in his adult leadline. The word went out prior to the Alberta Classic show, and he wound up having the biggest class in the show, along with the biggest smile!

All Breeds

Tana Smith drove her pretty gelding, RGM Special Delivery, in a solo performance in the all breeds pleasure driving junior exhibitor class, bringing her red ribbon back to Brittany Rogers of Rogers Riding Academy.

Big, forward moving and consistent, BMF Philemon, shown by Sjoukje-Jeltsje Baarda, won the all breeds hunter pleasure junior exhibitor class. They are another Brittany Rogers trained team.

BMF Custom Made is a fancy, dark bay, who had nice rides with Sonja Lorensen, and won both the all breeds western pleasure stake and the all breeds western pleasure junior/limit horse qualifier.

Winning the all breeds western pleasure mares and geldings class with a nice smooth ride was Cedarcrest Noteable Son and Gloria Jean Pitts, trained by Stephanie Abel of Dawnville Farms.

Steady and in the bridle, LLM Image of Thyme and Jennifer Kristensen were the only Morgan entry in the all breeds English pleasure stake, and they won reserve. Stephanie Abel trains this team.

Trail

This year's trail courses were designed by Anne de St. Remy. Annie Get Your Gun and Willa Schwab were very precise and accurate, and as a result, they won the trail championship and amateur qualifier. They are trained by Stephanie Abel of Dawnville Farms.

The reserve champion and open qualifier winner was Canabar Masquerade and Shari Groot. Her son, Brady Groot, won the walk trot trail class on Tazara Windigo. Cedarcrest Noteable Son and Gloria Jean Pitts were the limit horse class winners.

Claiming first place in the junior exhibitor qualifier was DVF In a Moment, shown by Kaija Meetsma. Both of these horses are trained by Dawnville's Stephanie Abel.

Dressage

Allegra Hohm was this year's dressage judge. Seasons Sizzlin Fantasy did great in the dressage division. Shown and trained by Barb Tracey from Bar-B Ranch, she won the huge training level test one (out of 8) and the walk trot test A and B. She is owned by Keith and Sherry Gummow. Also ridden by Barb Tracey, Emilie Wendland's TamRac's Enzo earned the red ribbon in the first level test one. Briar Oaks Frysky Byzness and Colleen Weighill won the training level tests two and three. The talented Morgan Hill Bold Image and Arlene Mackenzie won both second level TOC tests, and then returned in western attire to claim first in the western dressage level one TOC.

Youth Challenge

The annual CMHA Youth Challenge is open to all CMHA youth members 21 and under. It is comprised of three parts: speech, judging and equitation. The first component, judging, was held on Friday morning, and the winner was Jordan Reid.

Next was the speech contest in which there were three participants. This year's topic was "My perfect day with my Morgan would include...." Kaija Meetsma presented an expressive speech about a lovely trail ride and earned first place from judge Chantal Matthews.

Jordan Reid, poised and precise, won the Youth Challenge walk-trot-canter equitation, riding hunt seat on Bora Bora. In the walk-trot equitation, Bentlee Kublik had a smooth western ride on Iron Forge Code Blue to win first. Todd Trushel judged both equitation classes.

The results were announced on Saturday evening following the opening ceremonies, and the 2015 Overall champion was Jordan Reid. Reserve champion was Kaija Meetsma.

The 46th Annual Alberta Morgan Horse Show was a great weekend. Congratulations to all the exhibitors!

Compared to previous years, the show was quite successful in terms of entries with 126 horses. We hope to see another well attended show again next year!

Proof Delrose Burns rides

Ranfurly's 18 year old Skye Davies has been a horse enthusiast since early childhood, riding in assisted children's classes at the age of 3 years old. Now she has been given the opportunity to compete at an international level.

Skye and her family moved from the Lloydminster area to Ranfurly in fall of 2013 and operate K-Lyn Stable on the edge of the small hamlet along Highway 16.

Skye and her mother, Deb Davies, along with her grandmother Sandra Saran, matriarch of the horse showing family, have a long line of wins and accomplishments to the family name in the horse world.

The young rider has been trained under the guidance of her mom and grandmother throughout her riding career.

Her older sister Robyn has competed in high level competitions including the Saddle Seat World Cup held in South Africa and also the Canadian Young Riders Saddle Seat Invitational competition, which younger sister Skye has also qualified to compete in later this month in New Orleans, Louisiana.

She applied in February and was accepted to try out for the Canadian Saddle Seat team and after the trials held in Ponoka this past April, qualified for a spot on the team. The six young riders consisting of five members and an alternate will travel down for the competition scheduled June 24 through 27.

The international Saddle Seat Equitation competition in which three-and five-gaited competitors ride unfamiliar horses in rail work and pattern phases, is sanctioned under the United States Equestrian Federation (USEF) and provides young riders the experience required to continue on in hopes of making it to the World Cup event, as Skye's sister did.

The competition will see each rider matched up with horses they may never have ridden or even seen before. The Wednesday and Thursday before the competition are set aside as practise times. Each rider is allowed 15 minutes to try to bond with the horses selected for them by their coach. If the horse and rider do not appear to be a good combination they must find another horse selected for the team within the remainder of the 15 minutes allotted. After the match is found for each of the riders, they will compete in the following two days of competition.

Although Skye will be with her team in New Orleans, her mother Deb will not be accompanying her on the trip, something Deb says will be tough for herself. She has travelled with her daughters to most competitions the girls have attended, including events in the southern United States.

Skye has been preparing for the event by training at home with her horse Morgan Hill Monster Mash, A.K.A. Monty, a registered Morgan horse with a number of competition titles under his cinch. She has been riding him since the fall of 2012 and began competing with him the following summer. Her sturdy mount will sit out this competition as well.

To attend the competition, Skye has to raise the $1,500 team expense bond required to compete. She is just shy of that target but has had support from a number of local and outside contributors. She is very confident that she will meet the required goal and her dream of competing on the Canadian Young Riders Saddle Seat Invitational Team.

The Hiway 16 News will be following Skye Davies' story and keep our readers up-to-date on the results of her performance.

July 2014 Newsletter: Risks of Intramuscular Banamine

Flunixin meglumine (Banamine®) is a nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory agent that is very effective for the relief of pain, inflammation and fever in horses.

Banamine® is available in both injectable and oral forms. Veterinarians routinely use the injectable form intravenously (IV). Horse owners may have oral and injectable Banamine® on hand to relieve pain. It is important for owners to be aware of the risks if they give intramuscular (IM) injections of Banamine® or other medications.

Banamine® as well as a number of other drugs (ivermectin, progesterone, anti-histamines, phenylbutazone, dipyrone, vitamin B complex, and synthetic prostaglandins) can cause muscle damage when injected. While this usually causes few problems, spores of the bacteria Clostridium can lie dormant in healthy muscle and begin to proliferate when the muscle is damaged. Growth of this bacterium causes Clostridial myositis, a serious and sometimes fatal condition. Within 6-72 hours of the bacterial infection beginning, horses develop swelling and crunchy areas of gas under the skin at the site of the IM injection. As bacterial toxins are released into the bloodstream horses quickly develop signs of depression, colic, purple gums, and reluctance to move. Diagnosis of clostridial myositis is made by identifying gas produced in the damaged muscle using ultrasound and by examining aspirates of the area for bacteria.

It is very important to treat Clostridial myositis early and aggressively to decrease fatalities. Antibiotics are used in addition to surgically opening and cleaning any affected areas. Between 31% and 73% of horses survive Clostridial myositis but it may take months for the skin and muscle to heal.

Horse on the left has swelling and gas under the skin.

Horse on the right has had surgery to open up the infected areas and remove damaged

Although the risks of Clostridial myositis are relatively low and Banamine® is labeled for IM use, whenever possible it is best to administer Banamine® orally or have a veterinarian administer the drug IV. If any IM injection is given, the area should be monitored for signs of swelling and gas pockets under the skin and the horse watched for fever or depression.

If you notice any of these signs, call your veterinarian immediately.

Trainers Challenge

The trainer's equitation challenge was a fundraiser for the Ponoka Food Bank and thank you to everyone who contributed. This is a difficult time of year for food banks near and far and their appreciation for our efforts was evident.

Dean Hill accepted the donation of $905.00 and also two pallets of food from Joanne Dartana and Betty Tracey of the AMHC. Well done!
